JOB SUMMARY:

Are you someone who is passionate about serving others? Are you a food service worker looking to showcase your knowledge, skills, and abilities in a dynamic environment? Island Health knows that it is our team members who make a difference, deliver care and define our organizational culture.

Island Health provides health and care services to more than 885,000 people on Vancouver Island, the islands in the Salish Sea and the Johnstone Strait, and mainland communities north of Powell River. With more than 30,000 health care professionals, including more than 3,000 doctors, nurse practitioners midwives and dentists that make up our Medical Staff as well as 1,000 volunteers, and the dedicated support of 12 foundations and 19 active auxiliaries, Island Health delivers a broad range of health services, including: public health services, primary health care, home and community care, mental health and substance use services, acute care in hospitals, and much more across a huge and geographically diverse region.

Island Health offers programs and services on the unceded and traditional territories of the Coast Salish, Nuu-chah-nulth and Kwakwaka'wakw Peoples. As an organization, we are committed to cultural safety and humility and we demonstrate this through our actions to address Indigenous specific racism, systemic racism and the ongoing impacts of colonialism.

Opportunities are available across the island and in every setting that you can imagine! To name a few:

Kwakwaka'wakw Territory:

- Alert Bay, Port Alice, Port Hardy, and Port McNeill - Make up the Mt. Waddington region with pristine and rugged landscapes with rich cultural, wildlife and recreational experiences waiting to be discovered.
- Campbell River - Dubbed the "salmon capital of the world", this seaside town surrounded by hiking and biking trails that challenge your sense of adventure.
- Comox Valley - This is the place to ski and golf in one day. Situated between the Strathcona Provincial Park and the Strait of Georgia, this is an ideal spot to raise a family

Coast Salish Territory:

- Salt Spring Island - A laid back, close-knit community flourishing with artisans and spectacular ocean scenery.

- Nanaimo - Located on central Vancouver Island, this harbour city is a convenient access point to the mainland. Head to the beach and watch the cruise ships pass.
- Victoria - A vibrant urban centre with an abundance of recreational and cultural opportunities.
- Cowichan Valley - Easy access to Victoria and Nanaimo. This region boasts award winning wineries, thriving farmlands and year round markets.
